A Striking Example.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, TENN., November 18.—Perhaps the only county in the South not having a single negro inhabitant, Dickenson county, Va., furnishes a striking example of how President Roosevelt's so-called negro policy served him in the South. As soon as the official returns from this mountain county, where the negro is absolutely an unknown quantity, became known, the Republican county chairman, W. C. D. Rush, wired the President as follows: "Dickenson county, Va., the only county in the whole South with not a single colored inhabitant, gives you a majority of 106. This is the first time the county has voted Republican in a presidential election. Accept congratulations of the Republicans of Dickenson county."

KILLED WOMAN AND THEN SHOT HIMSELF

Hillebrand and Mrs. Miller Found Dead Together in a Buggy.

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, MICH., November 18.—Two night policemen in Wyandotte, twelve miles down the river from Detroit, early to-day discovered a horse and buggy standing at the corner of Fourth and Oak Streets, with H. J. Hillebrand and Mrs. W. J. Miller of Detroit, lying dead in the buggy. Both were shot through the head, and it is considered by the authorities to be a clear case of murder and suicide. Whether Hillebrand or the woman fired the shots is unknown. A letter found on Hillebrand's person, written by him by the woman while he was in Chicago a short time ago, told of an intimacy between the two, and warned Hillebrand that he must be careful of her husband, who she said had threatened to shoot him if he returned here. Hillebrand was a bartender. Mrs. Miller had been married only a year and a half. Her husband says he believes her refusal to elope with Hillebrand caused him to shoot her and commit suicide. Miller says his wife told him that Hillebrand had threatened her life once before when she refused to accompany him to Chicago.

MARTIN REFUSES RECEIVERSHIP

SOME POLITICAL GOSSIP

Several Changes Said to be Likely in the Western District.

C., Nov. 18.—Eugene Martin, of Wilmington, has declined the appointment as special master by Judge Pritchard and Purnell in the case of the Carolina and Northern Railroad Co., et al., vs. the Southern Saw-Mill Company, of Robeson county, heard in this city last Monday. Judge Purnell at the suggestion of Judge Pritchard has issued an order appointing H. F. Sewell, of Moore county, in his stead.

This is the case in which the plaintiff attacks Receiver W. J. Edwards and intimates collusion with the court, so that Judge Pritchard was called in to hear for the hearing last Monday when Martin was appointed.

NOT IN HUMOR FOR INCREASING SALARIES

Charter Committee Turns Down Flatly Many Requests for More Money.

Seven hours were consumed by the Committee on Charters, Ordinances and Reform last night in hearing petitions from various city employees for increase of salaries.

Superintendent Delaney, of the pump houses, was one of the petitioners. He spoke in his own behalf, but the request was laid over until the superintendent of the water works could be heard from.

Another petitioner was Superintendent Dickenson, of Oakwood Cemetery, who wanted his salary increased from $45 to $55. The committee decided to recommend an increase of $10 instead of $10. The janitor of the Howitzers' Armory, getting now $50, wanted an increase. The committee recommended that he get $55. A motion was made to recommend the increase of the Mayor's salary to $3,500, but this was defeated, and the body decided to report favorably on an increase to $3,600, as has all along been fought for.

The motion to increase the salaries of the police officers and patrolmen 10 per cent was tabled.

The petition of the clerk of the Board of Health for increase was tabled.

The clerk to the city treasurer asked for $1,500 instead of $1,600; petition was rejected.

A petition from the employees of the lower gas works for increase of pay was tabled.

So, after sitting until long after midnight, the committee had decided on increasing the pay-roll of the city, outside of the Mayor's salary, only $15.

RUSHED DESTROYER TO RUSSIAN FLEET.

International Complications Likely to Follow Latest Feat of Dashing Burke Roche.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch. Copyright, 1904.)

LONDON, November 18.—Burke Roche, the dashing Irish ex-member of Parliament, society man of Paris and New York, and father of Cynthia Roche, of Newport, has given official England a shock. He has just succeeded in rushing a torpedo boat destroyer from an English ship building port, believed to be Hull, into the shadow of the frowning guns of Libau, where she was delivered to the Russian authorities. Despite the never-ending watch of countless Japanese ships, eluding the guard of watchful British officers, and slipping past vigilantly careful German officials, Burke Roche took the destroyer to Russia without other papers than a bill of sale. The destroyer was taken across the North Sea through the Kiel Canal, steered by two German pilots, as required by law, and was anchored near a German cruiser until her papers could be examined. It was here that the most thrilling chapter of this war romance was enacted, for Burke Roche cut his cable and sent the speedy turbine destroyer away northward, dashing through the Baltic before German naval officers fully realized the character of the innocent-looking yacht-like thing that had been lying within a few yards of their anchor chains. International complications are sure to follow Mr. Roche's feat, and there will be long explanations from some one.
